

Men's National Doubles Tennis Championship Starts To-day on Longwood Courts, Boston

Western Stars Appear Likely To Reach Final

Johnston and Davis, of California, and Williams and Washburn are contenders

By Fred Hawthorne

All is in readiness for the first day of play in the men's annual national championship doubles lawn tennis tournament, which begins this afternoon on the new turf courts of the Longwood Cricket Club, at Chestnut Hill, near Boston.

While the field of players is not quite so extensive as in some former years, when the entrance qualifications were less strict, there is hardly a team entered that has not made a more or less noteworthy tournament record on the courts this season. Both national and international stars will compete, and there are two or three pairs that appear so evenly matched on the eve of the tournament that it would be hazardous to name any particular team as the probable winner of the honors now held by William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, of California.

It is not likely that the long trip East this season, so Johnston has paired off with Willis E. Davis, another Coast star, and the new team is liable to create trouble for any opposing combination before the work of play is finished. Davis showed at Southampton last week where he won the singles, that he has at last reached his real form. If he can maintain this pace on the Longwood courts this week, he and Johnston must be considered as extremely dangerous contenders.

Westerners in Upper Half
The two Californians are situated in the upper section of the draw, along with Richard Norris Williams 2d, of Boston, and Watson M. Washburn, of New York, the Davis Cup doubles team, and these teams should meet in the semi-final round, provided there are no startling upsets.

In the lower section the chief contenders appear to be William T. Tilden 2d, the world singles champion, and the national title holder, and Vincent Richards, national junior champion, with the Kinsey brothers, of California, liable to block their path in the semi-final brackets. Richards will also enter the national junior singles, to be played at Chestnut Hill this week.

While the men are busy with their tournament at Chestnut Hill the leading women players of the country will be seen in action on the old Longwood courts, and here again the entry list fairly bristles with quality. Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, national champion; Miss Mary K. Browne, national junior champion; Miss Leslie Bancroft, Miss Edith Sigourney and Mrs. Benjamin E. Cole, national clay court title holder, being among the entrants.

Women Meet September 26
Miss Julia Shanley, chairman of the tournament committee, asks me to state that a women's invitation tournament will be played on the clay courts of the Country Club of Greenwich, Conn., on Monday, September 26, and continue through the week. Almost every leading player now in the East is expected to play in what was about the last of the women's season on outdoor courts.

Ohio Football Team Already Preparing For Invasion Here
ATHENS, Ohio, Aug. 21.—Ohio University football team will be the first Ohio eleven to play the East coast when, on November 12, the big Athenian team will trot out on the Polo Grounds in New York to grapple with the Columbia University eleven.

The trip to New York City will mean the facing of no more serious a problem than will be confronted when the big Athenian eleven travels to Syracuse to meet the Orange and Blue team to Morganstown to play at Virginia University. Ohio plays Syracuse October 1 and West Virginia University October 15.

How football will the Green and White show to these three admittedly strong Eastern elevens? This is the question that is being asked everywhere, as it will be the first time in history that an Ohio College team has journeyed to the East coast to meet opponents.

Last fall Ohio won four of her seven games of football. Her captain, "Peg" Fuller, was placed on an Ohio team. But to the fans that were looking ahead the most agreeable thing was the fact that the varsity in scrimmage with their freshmen eleven all year long, was played on November 6 and 7.

Ohio University will play only five Ohio colleges. On October 8 Ohio will meet Cincinnati University's eleven, on October 15, the University of the South, and on November 12, the team will be met on Thanksgiving Day Ohio's old rival, Marietta, will be played here.

Eddie Casey to Coach Mt. Union College Team
Eastern football received a boost recently when Mount Union College offered Eddie Casey a coaching contract, which the former all-American back from Harvard signed.

Casey made a successful debut in the coaching game last season, and the Buckeyes were pleased with the showing. This season the University of Michigan appears on the Purple's schedule for the first time since 1917, and the "Pride of Harvard" will match his wits against those of "Hurricane" Yost, of the Wolverines.

Golf Champions to Tour
BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Jack Hutchinson, British open golf champion, and Jim Barnes, of Pelham, American open title holder, will tour the Pacific Coast for a series of exhibition matches. It was learned here to-day, it is understood the tour will start on December 1 and be confined mostly to southern California.

Swede Breaks World's Record in Swim Race

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Aug. 21.—Annaberg, a Swedish swimmer, to-day established a world's record for the 1,000 meters, free style, making the distance in 14 minutes 19 seconds and lowering the record made by F. E. Beaupaire at Adelaide, Australia, in February, 1920, by 12 seconds.

The amateur record for this distance is 14 minutes 37 seconds, made by G. R. Hodgson, of Montreal.

Golf Stars Gather For Western Open Title Tournament

Hutchinson, Barnes, MacDonald, Jones, Deigel and Many Others at Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Aug. 21.—One of the best fields that ever competed for the Western open golf championship will tee off in the qualifying round on Wednesday at the Oakwood club here. The pairings of 142 entrants were made to-night, and it is expected this number will be considerably augmented before the tournament gets under way.

Jack Hutchinson, holder of the British title, who continues to play brilliant golf, is one of the champions aiming to add this prize to his list, and if the flying Scotman maintains the pace he has been traveling since the open championship at Washington he will take some beating.

Jack is paired with Mike Brady, the crack Detroit professional, who was just beaten out for the Canadian open title last month by W. H. Trivinger, of Detroit. Brady made the place in the field of one of the five title holders listed. Brady apparently is back on his game, and, like "Hutch," has been playing exceptionally well the last several weeks.

Both he and Trivinger, a new star that promises to shine with great lustre, are sure to be in the running all the way. This pair top-scored the field at Cleveland in the previous competition, practically a two-man tie. Another who must be reckoned with when it comes to distributing titles is Long Jim Barnes, of the Pelham Country Club, of Pelham, N. H. Since his overwhelming victory on the Columbia Club links Barnes has been taking things easily and has not played the kind of golf which he is capable. But this big fellow is the sort who needs no conditioning nor training to get back into his game. He is coming to Cleveland to-morrow with the intention of winning the Western title, if possible, and he will be counted on to make a strong bid for the prize.

It will be interesting to see how Barnes and Hutchinson will compare in this tournament. This will be the first season in which both have played since they became champions.

Then there is Bob MacDonald, the long-driving Scot of the Bobolink Club, of Chicago, who, after failing to win the National, won the metropolitan championship against a stellar field. Big Bob is another who has been playing well of late. He will play around with Emmet French, the American professional team captain.

Those who are wonderful youngsters, Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, and Leo Deigel, of Detroit, who accompanied each other on the first two rounds in the first round meeting, are paired for the first round. The pairings and starting times of the contestants are as follows:
